Uniform Standards:

Due the high profile nature of the event, an ALTERNATE uniform is used. Guards may wear their standard Polo on all overnight shifts, and during the day until MONDAY, January 17th. At that point, the onsite supervisor will issue Barrett-Jackson Polo's. Overnight Security may continue to wear their regular uniform. Barrett Polo's will be issued per shift, and are not available to be signed out under any circumstances. Solid white or black long sleeve shirts are highly suggested to wear in layers under the Barrett Jackson polo, as it does get cold.

BDU style pants are NOT to be worn after January 17th. Simple Plain black slacks are the only acceptable pants. (Overnight guards are the exception, they may wear the standard style of pants.) Long underwear are highly suggested to wear underneath.

Cold weather Gear: Guards are strongly encouraged to dress in WARM layers, bring gloves or mittens, and a winter hat. Black "beanies" are acceptable, (without any visible logos) Experience has taught us the usefulness of Hot Hands and Feet warming packets. (Available at Walmarts, Walgreens, Sam's Club and Costco, and probably other places.)

Shoes: 99.8% of the event is standing a post or constantly walking. Baby your feet a bit. Comfortable, good fitting, supportive shoes make a huge difference. I also suggest investing in a pair of comfort insoles, and soaking your feet in Epsom Salts.

Food and Drink: There are a large number of food vendors onsite. And many are delicious. They are also very expensive and do not provide discounts to anyone. I will be bringing out a microwave that I will make available at Dispatch, and please remember to bring ample food and water, providing yourself with sustenance is a very important responsibility. There is a Safeway Grocery store about 5 minutes away from the Auction Site, on Thompson Peak Rd.

General Barrett Jackson Auction Information:

Barrett Jackson is an annual Collector Car Auction, with the Scottsdale Auction as the Flagship, and the recently added shows in Las Vegas, Orange County and Palm Beach. The Barrett-Jackson company was formed in 1971, and is still family operated. Over 1700 cars will cross the block this January. Every vehicle at Barrett will be auctioned. The Auction is a “no reserve” style, so however low or high the price of the car is when the gavel drops is what the car is sold for. To partake in the actual Auction, you have to be a registered Bidder, but the general public is more than welcome to observe the auctioning of the cars. The media coverage is extensive, including constant filming by the HStoryChannel- This auction has some of the most famous and rare cars in the world. A listing of cars, as well as the daily schedule of events can be found here: <http://www.barrett-jackson.com/> Tens of thousands of people attend the event daily, and it is imperative that Customer Service be a number one priority.

Executive Staff: Consider these people ALL ACCESS/ All the Time/ No matter what:

Craig Jackson: Chairman and CEO. It's his auction. He parks near the staging lanes, and we do everything possible to accommodate him and his personal guests at all times.

Steve Davis: President. And will always have his sunglasses on. Steve parks in the office parking lot.

Gary Bennett: VP of Consignment. Gary always pulls in through gate 2, and will drive down to the Consignment tent on the field. His cars look like show cars. Gary uses his business cards as passes, and this is fine.

Casey MacDonald: Casey runs the Operations on Site, and is our direct contact client. He will pull in through Gate 6 every day at 06:30, so please learn and recognize his truck. He parks across from the staging lanes. His requests need to get taken care of ASAP.
